SENATOR PROCTOR NOW READY TO GO HUNTING

"If I had had anything to tell the President," said Senator Proctor to a fered heavy loss from high wind that at group of newspaper men, when he came out of the Executive Offices this morning, "it would have been that I hoped to carry Vermont at the approaching

Asked by one of the group if he thought there was any doubt, of that result, the Senator laughingly replied that things "did look most hopeful." Senator Proctor held quite a conference with the President discussing general matters relating to the Administration. The Senator, who is a great fish-erman and hunter, leaves next week for Canada, where he will spend some time in the mountains on a hunting trip.

A Japanese fleet of four cruisers and four destroyers was seen in Society Bay this morning. The vessels were evidently assisting some landing party.

Fighting in Progress.

From Chinese junks in the bay it was learned that heavy fighting is in progress ashore in the neighborhood of Port-Residents of Dalny expect a Japanese attack very soon. The attempt made about a fortnight ago to destrey the docks and piers at Dalny was not suc-cussful, and after the receipt of the news of the loss of the Japanese bat-tleship Hatsuse Lieutenant General

Stoessel, commander of the military forces at Port Arthur, ordered that the docks and piers be not destroyed. Chinese junks arriving from Takushar report the landing of 6,000 Japanese report the landing of 6,000 Japanese troops at Takushan on May 21. Another junk from Pitsewo reports that the Japanese are landing a smail number of troops there every day and building temporary barracks on Elliott Island, where 100 ships, including men-of-war and transports, have made a rendezvous.
